CONFERENCE INTRODUCTION

2019 4th International Conference on Biomedical Imaging, Signal Processing (ICBSP 2019) will be held in Nagoya City University, Nagoya, Japan during October 17-19, 2019. The aim of ICBSP 2019 is to present the latest research and results of scientists related to Biomedical Imaging, Signal Processing topics. This conference provides opportunities for delegates to exchange new ideas and application experiences face to face, to establish business or research relations as well as to find global partners for future collaboration.

TOPICS

Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

- Bioimaging and Biomedical Signal Processing
- Biomedical Imaging and Image Processing
- Biomedical Signal and Image Filtering
- Biometric Image Processing and Recognition
- Multimodal Data Fusion and Analysis
- Pattern Recognition in Biomedical Applications
- Signal Processing for Big Data
- Spoken Language Processing
